

Let's talk about DIXON'S PATH FORWARD

Get a clear look at proposed development in Dixon, come ask questions, hear the latest updates and join a conversation with your neighbors about the choices ahead.

Dixon Grown is the City of Dixon's official resource for residents seeking information about development processes, project updates and opportunities for community input. The City is committed to navigating conversations around our future transparently, and your input at every stage matters.

Join us at an upcoming workshop near you!

All sessions feature the same information and are open to all community members.
