

Are you looking to build long-term sustainability for your farm business?

Join our 1:1 Business Advising Program

Kitchen Table Advisors, a non-profit organization, works with under-resourced farmers and ranchers to fuel their long-term success and transform the food system. Our program offers monthly in-person business advising over 3 years, with no cost to participants—just a commitment of time, engagement, and a willingness to grow.

What We Offer

We deliver practical, hands-on business advising. This can include:

- Creating business, marketing, and financial plans
- Using financial analysis to make business decisions
- Accessing funding, markets, and a supportive network

Is This Program a Good Fit?

You are a for-profit, sustainable farmer or rancher that:

- Has 3–10 years running your own operation and is committed long-term
- Is certified organic, transitioning to organic, or uses ecologically sustainable practices (including pastured livestock)
- Has a strong desire for learning, including building skills around accountability and communication
- Has a financial need for our advising services
- Is located in any of the following counties in California:
 - KTA North: Sonoma, Napa, Marin, Sacramento, Solano, Yolo, Alameda, Contra Costa
 - KTA Central: Monterey, Santa Cruz, San Benito, Santa Clara, San Mateo, Fresno, Madera, Merced, Stanislaus
